Title:	Academic Advising

GUIDING PRINCIPLE

NBCC seeks to foster a sense of partnership between the student achieving his/her academic goals, and the college's mission to support student learning.

Instructors offer learning opportunities to students, playing an integral role in supporting student success.

POLICY STATEMENT

Academic advising is a role that Instructors, Department Heads and Counsellors fulfill daily, assisting students in their pursuit of career goals and learning.

The College is accountable to provide academic advisors, remedial support strategies, and access to program and course information to support this role.
