Title:	Student Computer Usage Policy

GUIDING PRINCIPLE

NBCC is committed to promoting and ensuring effective, efficient and responsible use of information and communication technologies provided to students and to minimize risk of unacceptable and unlawful use.

The primary purpose of the campus computers, network and connection to the Internet is to provide students with access to local and networked resources and information services which support learning and skill development for their education, research and administrative functions .

POLICY STATEMENT

Appropriate use of the electronic network is paramount. Computing standards and expectations on computing integrity and unlawful use shall be clearly defined in the Computer Usage Procedure and provided to students.

NBCC is authorized to impose disciplinary measures as it deems reasonable, according to the seriousness of the circumstances for students who are found in violation of the Computer Usage procedure.
